Pearson Allied
Health Services

MEETING THE NEEDS OF THE DEAF
AND HARD OF HEARING COMMUNITY

Pearson Allied health Services has a team of mentors, support workers and allied health assistants, who are fluent in Auslan, and either are Deaf or hard of hearing themselves and/or understand Deaf culture and Deaf ways.

Our team support families of deaf children and young people for whom Auslan is the preferred language.

We also work with Deaf and hard of hearing Adults, helping them reach their goals by:

- Developing everyday living skills
- Delivering supports within the home
- Assistance with daily personal activities
 - Teaching everyday life skills
 - Increasing independence
- Attending appointments, groups and activities.
 - Social skills supports
